Which is the woman's luggage?

Man: I'll get your luggage! Is it this backpack?

Woman: No, it's a big black suitcase; it might be this one.

Man: This one hasn't got wheels, is it yours?

Woman: No, it's the next one! The one with wheels! Can you get it for me?

2 What time will their flight leave?

Man: Oh dear! Our flight is delayed.

Woman: What? It's leaving in twenty minutes, at 8 a.m.

Man: No, it's delayed by half an hour.

Woman: So we're going to be late for the 11 o'clock meeting.

3 Which country are they visiting?

Girl: Let's send this postcard to our friends in England!

Boy: The one with the cat? That's the island of Santorini, and we are still in Athens!

Girl: Yes, but it looks lovely, and we're going there tomorrow.

Boy: OK, then! But I'm getting this one to send to our family back home in the USA.

4 What activity are they doing in the morning?

Man: I love this ship! We'll be arriving in Venice after breakfast!

Woman: Yes, and we're going on a gondola tour this evening.

Man: Shall we go sightseeing or shopping first?

Woman: Sightseeing. We'll have time for shopping tomorrow.

5 Which person is the tour guide?

Woman: You have to ask our tour guide to book the tour, she's usually at the hotel reception.

Man: The blonde woman with glasses?

Woman: No, that's the receptionist. Her name's Polly. Our tour guide is Jan. She's got short brown hair and wears a yellow jacket.

Man: Oh, then who is the smart grey-haired woman who welcomed us?

Woman: That's Carol, the hotel manager.

Sally: Shall we go on a trip this weekend?

Jake: Yes, why don't we go to that place, 'Forest Adventure', I think it's called. There are all sorts of fun activities you can do there, things like rope bridges, rope swings and zip wires.

Sally: Oh, Jake, you know I'm afraid of heights. I hate the idea of being high up in a forest!

Jake: I think it would be exciting, but you don't have to be high up, you can also do something called a 'Segway Safari'. That's a safe way to explore the forest on the ground. You ride a Segway through the forest. We could do that together if you like.

Sally: OK, what time shall we go there?

Jake: Well, let's see what's available, I'm looking at the website now. If we go next Tuesday, July 3rd, we can start at 10.20 or 11.40 or even 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Sally: Let's go at 1 p.m. How long does it take? About an hour and 20 minutes?

Jake: Every 'Segway Safari' takes an hour, it says here, including the short talk about safety before you start. Oh, and you have to wear a helmet. They lend you a helmet, you can't wear your own helmet.

Sally: That's OK. Is there any age limit? Maybe we could take my cousin, Joe.

Jake: Hang on. Yes, you have to be over 10 years old and you have to weigh at least 45 kilos.

Sally: He's too young, then, but we're OK, we're both way over 45 kilos! There's one more thing: How much is it?

Jake: The tickets cost £40 each. What do you think? Shall I book them?

Sally: OK, if you book them, I'll give you the money later.

Lou: Hi everyone, I am Lou. I really love taking the train and I especially love train stations. I usually sit in the waiting room inside the station if it is cold but on days like today I really enjoy waiting on the platform. Oh, I can see the train coming now.

Bill: My name is Bill. We've got a long journey ahead of us today because we are spending the weekend at our grandparents' house in the country, so we need to stop at a petrol station. Mum always takes us there by our new eco-car, but Dad likes the van better because it means we can take a lot of things with us. I am glad that Dad is driving today because I have a special present for Grandad.

Rita: Hi, I'm Rita. We set off in our car early this morning and have already been driving for a few hours. We still have a long journey to complete, so we decided to drive off the motorway and stop at a service station. Dad needed to put some petrol in the car, and my brother and I wanted to go to a restaurant for a snack.

Dan: I am Dan and at the moment I am on holiday with my family. We rented a car so that we could drive around the Greek island we are staying on. Today we've decided to do something really special and go to another island, so we've booked a trip on a ferry. It is very exciting because I have never done anything like this before!

Cheryl: My name is Cheryl and I love going to airports, train stations and any other place which means the start of a trip. Today we aren't going all that far; we don't even need to drive on the motorway; we're just staying in the city. Dad is driving my sister and me to a friend's birthday party, but we are still very excited, even though it is close by.

Woman: Good morning, can I help you?

Man: Yes, I want two tickets for the river cruise that leaves from here, Westminster Pier.

Woman: Do you want to go on a circular cruise or do you want to stop and get off?

Man: How long does the circular cruise take?

Woman: 45 minutes, it brings you back to where you got on, and means you can't get off the boat.

Man: Oh no, I want the kind of cruise where I can stop and see the sights.

Woman: You need a Red Rover ticket in that case. You can stop at three different places. It costs £18 per person. You can use the ticket for the whole day until five o'clock, that's when the last boat leaves Greenwich.

Man: Where can I stop?

Woman: The boat stops at the London Eye, near Tower Bridge and at Greenwich and it passes lots of other famous sights.

Man: And how often do the boats leave?

Woman: Every half hour. The next one is in five minutes, at 10 o'clock.

Man: Great. Can I have two tickets, one adult and one child?

Woman: That's £18 for the adult and £9 for the child.

Man: OK, here's £30.

Woman: Here's your change and your tickets. Enjoy your trip!
